Civil Action No. A-00-CA-813 JN

ORDER OF REFERRAL TO MEDIATION

Plaintiff's motion for referral to mediation is granted. Ordered that the parties agree on a mediator within five days of the date of this order, or, alternatively, inform the court that agreement was not possible and that the court should appoint a mediator. Ordered, further, that promptly after the selection or appointment of the mediator, the parties shall contact the mediator to schedule a mediation conference to be held within 30 days of the date of this order, or as soon thereafter as any scheduling conflict can be resolved. Fees of the mediator shall be divided equally between the plaintiff and the defendants.

The mediation conference shall be conducted fully in accordance with the provisions of Local Rule CV-88.

SIGNED at Austin, Texas, this 31st day of OCTOBER, 2001.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'James Nowlin', is written over a horizontal line. The signature is stylized with large loops and a long, sweeping tail that extends downwards.
